Dear Madhavi,

Your annual compensation package for FY 26 has been revised, as reflected in the table below, after taking into consideration your individual performance, the contribution of your team/business function to the progress of the Company's goals and the Company's overall business performance during FY 25.

Do note that the revisions in your compensation package for FY 26 and the bonus / variable pay amount in respect of FY 25 are computed on a pro-rata basis factoring in the number months that you were actively employed with the Company during FY 25.

•	Your compensation package (inclusive of all company contributions, statutory bonus if any applicable) stands revised with retrospective effect from 1 April 2025, to:	INR 1100000
•	In addition, in respect of FY 26 you would be eligible to be considered for the variable pay program of the Company, under which you could be entitled to a maximum earning of upto:	INR 125000
	Total Maximum Package	INR 1225000
All payments are subject to applicable tax, including Income Tax and statutory rules (e.g. above amounts cover any bonus payable under payment of bonus act).

Further, in respect of FY 25 you will receive a bonus/variable pay amount (calculated pro rata as mentioned above) of INR 67000.

Please note that the variable pay component (in respect of FY 26) that may be payable to you, would be determined and paid at the sole discretion of the Company; the eligibility, quantum and payout would be based, inter alia, upon your continued active employment with the Company on the date of payment of such variable pay amounts, the overall financial performance of the Company during FY 26 and the quality of your individual /team contribution to the organization during the period.

Please also do note that the compensation structure will be revised by the Company from time to time to ensure compliance with applicable labour laws including the Code on Wages, 2019, the rules framed thereunder and other applicable statutes. Components that qualify as "wages" under applicable law shall be treated accordingly for the purpose of calculating statutory benefits including provident fund, gratuity and other social security benefits.

We thank you for your contributions and look forward to your continued support.
